FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BOIES, SCHILLER & FLEXNER'S LONDON OFFICE DEBUTS IN LEGAL 500 RANKINGS

London, September 22, 2015 – Less than 18 months after opening its doors for business, Boies, Schiller & Flexner's London office has earned rankings from Legal 500 for banking litigation, commercial litigation, and international arbitration.

In addition, two of the firm's three London partners were named as leading individuals in their practice areas. Natasha Harrison, the Managing Partner of the London office, was named a leading individual in banking litigation, and was described as "exceptionally talented." Wendy Miles QC was named a leading individual in international arbitration.

Ms. Harrison opened Boies, Schiller & Flexner's London office in 2014, spearheading the U.S.-based firm's first overseas office at a time when its clients are facing an increasingly global litigation and regulation climate. Ms. Miles joined later the same year and heads the firm's International Arbitration practice. A third partner, disputes attorney Ken Beale, joined in 2015. The office now numbers 14 lawyers.
