PROFILE

Laselve is an experienced litigator who specializes in high-stakes litigation and appeals in federal and state court. Laselve's clients value his responsiveness, creative solutions, results-driven approach, and ability to achieve favorable outcomes in line with their business needs.

Laselve represents individuals and corporations in complex contractual and business disputes, securities litigation, antitrust and unfair competition claims, real estate development disputes, and multidistrict litigation. Laselve's appellate experience includes briefing before state appellate courts and the U.S. Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals, as well as successfully arguing a matter of first impression before Florida's Third District Court of Appeal.

Laselve is an active presence in the community and seeks to effect positive change through his work with the 100 Black Men of South Florida's Emerging 100, 5000 Role Models of Excellence, Miami Book Fair, and Caribbean Bar Association.

Prior to joining the firm, Laselve clerked for the Honorable Darrin P. Gayles, United States District Judge for the Southern District of Florida.
