PROFILE

A partner at Boies Schiller Flexner for over 20 years, Stuart was described by Chambers USA in 2024, as having a “fantastic courtroom presence” and being “among the best trial lawyers in the country.”

Lawdragon called Stuart “a dazzling advocate in trial and appellate courts,” who is relied on “to win big when it matters.” Stuart has done that for numerous Fortune 500 companies, as well as smaller businesses, individuals, and nonprofit organizations. On the plaintiffs’ side, Stuart has served as lead counsel in antitrust and securities representations that have recovered over $1 billion.

Stuart’s experience covers a wide variety of subjects, including antitrust, securities, energy, class action defense, civil fraud, unfair trade practices, professional liability defense, constitutional business law and health care. He has successfully defended the largest utility in the U.S., including in billion-dollar class actions and before the Florida Supreme Court in regulatory and environmental litigation. He also has represented one of the preeminent law firms in the U.S. for over a decade.

Stuart has been recognized by clients and peers as one of the top lawyers in the nation by Chamber & Partners, Best Lawyers in America, and Lawdragon. He has won multiple Most Effective Lawyer awards from the Daily Business Review and has twice been named The American Lawyer’s Litigator of the Week.

Stuart’s appellate work has included matters in virtually every federal appellate court in the country, including the U.S. Supreme Court, and he has successfully argued cases in the second, fifth, ninth, tenth and eleventh federal circuits, as well as the Florida Supreme Court and state appellate courts.

EXPERIENCE

Stuart’s representative matters include:

- Lead counsel for the nation’s largest producer of renewable energy, for over 15 years, in numerous matters, including successful defense of class actions seeking over $1 billion
- Litigated commerce clause challenge to Texas law that only allows incumbent Texas utilities to construct, own, and operate new interstate transmission lines; argued and won a Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals ruling that the law was facially discriminatory
- Lead counsel for one of the nation’s most prominent law firms in professional liability matters, including winning a broad attorney immunity ruling from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 5th Circuit, obtaining a directed verdict eliminating a claim for over $800 million in damages after an 8-week jury trial, and winning multiple cases entitling the defendant law firm to recovery of attorneys’ fees
- Successfully argued in the Florida Supreme Court in 2018 and 2019 representing Florida’s largest utility in its base rate case and environmental cost recovery litigation; also won 2020 ruling from state intermediate appellate court establishing that the utility is not responsible for interruption of electricity following a major hurricane, and 2024 ruling requiring purported class plaintiffs to raise issues of hurricane preparedness before the Public Service Commission
- Lead counsel for Fortune 500 insurance and information services company for over 20 years in a variety of litigation and governmental matters, including a successful jury trial in federal court in New Jersey in summer 2023
- Recovered more than $750 million for corporate clients who opted out of class actions alleging price fixing by liquid-crystal-display manufacturers and cathode ray tube manufacturers
