Shari represents clients in all aspects of complex matrimonial and family law matters.

Since graduating from law school, Shari has exclusively practiced family law. She began her career at The Legal Aid Society in its Juvenile Rights Practice, where she represented children and young adults in various family law matters and developed extensive trial experience. She then worked at a boutique matrimonial law firm in Manhattan before joining Boies Schiller Flexner.

Shari serves on the Matrimonial Law Committee of the New York City Bar Association. She is also a member of the New York Women’s Bar Association Matrimonial and Family Law Committee, the New York State Bar Association Family Law Section, and the American Bar Association Family Law Section.
