PROFILE

Alessia has long-standing experience in assisting foreign clients with the purchase and management of businesses and properties in Italy, as well as Italian entrepreneurs in expanding and developing their business abroad. She offers corporate, commercial, and real estate consultancy in cross-border transactions regarding family assets and businesses.

Her qualification as a Family Officer enables her to combine her corporate and commercial skills with a focus on private wealth. She has extensive experience in the legal issues family offices encounter and in assisting clients in the acquisition, management, and divestment of luxury and trophy assets.

Alessia is a trusted advisor for families with worldwide interests, playing a delicate, important role in all aspects relating to family governance and identity such as succession planning and crafting agreements among family members as well as in protecting and optimizing family assets.

EXPERIENCE
