Via Orefici, 2 Milano, 20123 Italy Phone +39 02 3056 9605

PROFILE

Barbara has experience in compliance, with a focus on legislative decree 231/2001, i.e. the so-called "administrative liability of entities." She is also the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of multiple major Italian companies and local subsidiaries of foreign companies listed in the EU and in the United States.

Barbara acts as a Data Protection Officer for a number of multinational companies.

She also advises clients on compliance with EMIR (European Market Infrastructure Regulation), Market Abuse Regulation and the Consolidate Financial Act.

Prior to focusing her practice on the various aspects of compliance, Barbara practiced as a white-collar crime lawyer, representing Italian and foreign private and corporate clients accused of corporate, tax, corruption, money laundering, fraud, financial, IT, and privacy crimes.

EXPERIENCE

Barbara's experience includes:

- Drafting of and implementing risk assessments and compliance models pursuant to Legislative Decree 231/2001 for large Italian companies
- Chairing the Supervisory Board of major corporations operating in the food & drink, chemical, electronics, automotive, biomedical/biotech, real estate, packaging, construction, engineering, mechanical, manufacturing, and waste management sectors, as well as for financial institutions
