PROFILE

Logan's practice involves representing both plaintiffs and defendants in complex litigation in federal and state courts, as well as domestic and international arbitrations under major arbitral rules.

Prior to joining the firm, Logan worked as an associate at another international law firm and served as a law clerk to the Hon. Thomas Barber of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida. He also worked as the general counsel and legislative assistant for a member of the U.S. House of Representatives, and was an international arbitration and public international law attorney at the Paris office of another international law firm.
