

ASSOCIATE

Alec Soghomonian

New York

55 Hudson Yards
20th Floor
New York, NY 10001
Phone 212 446 2353

PROFILE

Alec represents plaintiffs and defendants in a range of practice areas, including complex commercial litigation, constitutional law, and criminal defense. He has worked with clients at all stages of litigation in both state and federal court.

Alec's current work includes cryptocurrency class actions, complex contractual litigation, and bankruptcy clawback litigation. He also maintains a robust pro bono practice, representing indigent individuals at all stages of criminal proceedings.

Alec is fluent in Armenian.

PUBLICATIONS & PRESENTATIONS

Rethinking Hindsight: The Failed Interpretation of Graham V. Connor, N.Y.U. Review of Law and Social Change (March 2023)

Religious Accommodation or Unlawful Favoritism? Examining the Constitutionality of the Parsonage Exemption, N.Y.U. Proceedings (2021)

PRACTICES

Class Actions
Constitutional Law
Commercial Disputes
Media and First Amendment
Appellate

EDUCATION

New York University School of Law, J.D.
Occidental College, B.A., Economics

ADMISSIONS

Bars
New York