

ASSOCIATE

Nessa Salvador

London

5 New Street Square
London, EC4A 3BF UK
Phone +44 203 908 0737

PROFILE

Nessa's practice focuses on high value and complex commercial litigation and arbitration.

She has particular experience representing clients in domestic and international arbitration under the UNCITRAL and ICC Arbitration Rules and in a diverse range of commercial litigation cases, including class actions.

Her experience includes working with clients in the energy, retail, property, financial services, and technology sectors on a wide range of commercial disputes, including contract, regulatory, competition, cybersecurity, and construction disputes. Prior to joining the firm, Nessa practiced at a top-tier law firm in Sydney, Australia.

EXPERIENCE

Nessa's recent experience includes:

- Acting on potential litigation in the U.K. relating to cryptocurrency matters
- Representing a Middle Eastern telecommunications company in its set-aside application before the DIFC courts concerning an award arising out of an arbitration under the ICC arbitration rules
- Acting on the global enforcement strategy of a multibillion-pound U.K. judgment
- Representing a supermarket retail giant in its defence of class action proceedings*

PRACTICES

Commercial Disputes
Class Actions
International Arbitration
Data Privacy and Cybersecurity
Energy
International Private Client

EDUCATION

Macquarie University, Bachelor of Laws, honors; Dean's Award for Outstanding Contributions to the Macquarie Law School Community, PACE Scholarship, Student Ambassador
The University of Sydney, Master of Laws, with an overall Distinction grade

ADMISSIONS

Bars

Supreme Court of New South Wales, Australia

- Representing the owners of a solar farm in a commercial arbitration under the ICC arbitration rules concerning construction delay and liquidated damages*
- Representing a coal mining company in a litigation concerning alleged breaches of a marketing services contract*
- Representing the non-executive directors of a property development company in a litigation defending allegations of shareholder oppression*

* Experience prior to joining BSF

Copyright © 2024 Boies Schiller Flexner LLP.
All Rights Reserved.

Attorney Advertising.
Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.