PROFILE

Amber focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation. She has assisted both plaintiffs and defendants in high-stakes civil litigation concerning commercial contract disputes and professional malpractice.

Prior to joining the firm, Amber served as a law clerk to the Hon. Brian A. Jackson of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana, where she handled both civil and criminal dockets in one of the busiest federal trial courts in the nation. She also managed an appellate caseload while Judge Jackson sat by designation on the U.S Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

During law school, Amber was the Editor-in-Chief of the Chicago Journal of International Law and worked with her editorial board to launch CJIL Online, the journal’s digital publication.

Admitted to practice in Illinois only; Not admitted to practice in Florida.
