Amanda works on high-stakes complex commercial litigation on behalf of both plaintiffs and defendants in federal and state courts and arbitrations. Her work includes cases involving antitrust, contractual disputes, and constitutional issues.

Prior to joining the firm, Amanda served as a law clerk to the Hon. Paul C. Huck of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, where she managed both civil and criminal dockets in one of the busiest federal trial courts in the nation.

During law school, Amanda represented veterans in appeals to the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims as a member of the Veterans and Servicemembers Legal Clinic. Amanda also interned in-house in the litigation department for a major Florida utility company.
