

ASSOCIATE

Jacob Smith

Washington D.C.
1401 New York Ave, NW
Washington, DC 20005
Phone 202 274 1139

Jacob is a litigator with a focus on administrative law.

Jacob joined the firm after clerking for the Hon. John B. Nalbandian on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. He graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law, where he was a member of the Virginia Law Review, and Patrick Henry College, where he won the school's Economics and Business Analytics award.

During law school, Jacob argued before the Fourth Circuit as a member of UVA's Appellate Litigation Clinic. He also logged pro bono hours for multiple organizations and worked as a research assistant.

PRACTICES

- Antitrust and Competition
- Appellate
- Employment Disputes
- Government Litigation

EDUCATION

- University of Virginia School of Law, J.D., Order of the Coif, Virginia Law Review; Christian Legal Society; Federalist Society
- Patrick Henry College, B.A., Economics & Business Analytics; AMCA moot court; Economics and Business Analytics award

ADMISSIONS

- Bars
  - District of Columbia

CLERKSHIPS

- Hon. John B. Nalbandian, U.S. Court of Appeals: Sixth Circuit