PROFILE

Andres has over a decade of experience advising investors and sovereign states in high-stakes commercial and investor-state international arbitration.

He has acted as counsel in over 10 investor-state arbitration proceedings administered by ICSID and PCA, as well as in numerous commercial arbitrations under ICC and UNCITRAL rules. His experience spans a diverse range of industries, including mining, telecommunications, energy, banking, oil and gas, and construction. In addition, he has served as secretary to arbitral tribunals in multiple commercial arbitration proceedings.

Before joining the firm, Andres practiced with a leading international arbitration team in New York and at two litigation boutiques in Peru, giving him a unique perspective on both civil and common law jurisdictions. He has also taught international arbitration at a Peruvian law school and has been a guest speaker on multiple occasions in the international arbitration course at Columbia University.

EXPERIENCE

Andres' experience includes:

- Representing Peru in the successful defense of a $150 million claim brought by a U.S. gold trader under the United States-Peru TPA
- Represented Peru in the successful defense of a contract and treaty based ICSID arbitration filed by five U.S. energy companies in the renewable energy sector
