Connor is a trial lawyer representing companies and individuals in complex commercial litigation, including shareholder and partnership disputes, shareholder derivative actions, patent litigation, and employment litigation, as well as white collar investigations and government enforcement proceedings.

Connor has been a member of successful trial teams in the U.S. District Courts for the Southern District of New York and the Eastern District of Texas, where he helped secure favorable verdicts for clients in complex, high-stakes cases. His experience covers every stage of litigation, from discovery and dispositive motions through trial.
