Julia represents plaintiffs and defendants, with a focus on complex civil litigation.

Julia’s practice spans a broad range of areas, including complex commercial litigation, media and first amendment, arbitration award enforcement, and representation of survivors of sex trafficking and abuse. Julia has worked on matters at all stages of litigation from precomplaint investigation through trial and appeals.

During law school, Julia gained firsthand litigation experience through internships with the Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Project in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, the Legal Aid Society, and the New York office of a prominent law firm.
