Amantha's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and professional malpractice matters, representing clients in high-stakes disputes and arbitrations. Her work includes contract claims, intellectual property issues, and partnership conflicts.

Prior to joining the firm, Amantha served as a law clerk to the Hon. Paul C. Huck of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, where she managed both civil and criminal dockets in one of the busiest federal trial courts in the nation.

Amantha also worked at a leading regional law firm handling business litigation matters such as partnership disputes, creditors' rights, and complex real estate disputes.

While in law school, she was a judicial intern to the Hon. Nicholas Mizell of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida, gaining valuable insight into federal litigation.
