PROFILE

An avid advocate for her clients, Rachel focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation on behalf of both plaintiffs and defendants in federal and state courts. Her work includes high-stakes commercial disputes, antitrust, and commercial arbitration matters.

Before joining the firm, Rachel served on active duty in the U.S. Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps where she was a prosecutor, in-house counsel, national security litigation advisor, and appellate counsel. Rachel managed all stages of complex criminal litigation and successfully tried numerous high-stakes criminal matters to verdict.

Rachel also served as a law clerk to the Hon. Judge Curtis L. Collier of the Eastern District of Tennessee, where she managed both civil and criminal dockets.
