

ASSOCIATE

Snowy (Baixue) Zheng

Los Angeles
2029 Century Park East
Suite 1060
Los Angeles, CA 90067
Phone 213 995 5711

Snowy practices high-stakes, complex civil litigation, with a focus on commercial litigation, cross-border disputes, white collar defense, and securities litigation. She represents businesses and individuals in state and federal courts in matters involving asset forfeiture, foreign judgment recognition, and other multijurisdictional controversies.

During law school, Snowy interned with the Internal Revenue Service Office of Chief Counsel, where she argued motions before the U.S. Tax Court and managed a docket of deficiency cases. She also served as senior editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review.

PRACTICES

×

- Commercial Disputes
- Global Investigations and White Collar Defense
- International Private Client
- International Investments and Transactions
- Securities and Shareholder Disputes
- Intellectual Property

EDUCATION

×

- Loyola Law School, J.D.; Senior Editor, Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review
- Pepperdine University, B.A., Communications

ADMISSIONS

×

- Bars
- California
 - U.S. District Court: Central District of California

AWARDS AND ASSOCIATIONS

×

- 2024 Rising Leader Award (Asian Pacific American Women Lawyers Alliance)

LANGUAGES

×

- Mandarin

Copyright © 2026 Boies Schiller Flexner LLP.
All Rights Reserved.

Attorney Advertising.
Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.