PROFILE

Olivia's practice focuses on global investigations, white collar defense, and complex commercial litigation. She has experience in trial and appellate litigation, government investigations, and criminal matters involving cryptocurrencies, other digital assets, fraud, money laundering, and asset recovery.

Before joining the firm, Olivia clerked for the Hon. Seth R. Aframe of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit and the Hon. Raúl M. Arias-Marxuach of the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico. Before clerking, Olivia served as a trial attorney in the U.S. Department of Justice through the Attorney General's Honors Program. At the DOJ, Olivia investigated and prosecuted diverse crimes involving money laundering and asset forfeiture, with a particular focus on digital assets, international transactions, and antiquities.
