PROFILE

Matthew is an appellate and trial advocate who represents plaintiffs and defendants in commercial and class action litigation. His practice spans a wide range of matters, from constitutional challenges to bet-the-company business and antitrust disputes.

Before joining the firm, Matthew clerked for the Hon. Adalberto Jordan of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the Hon. Lauren Louis of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. Adept in intellectual property law, he began his career at a global media company where he focused on cutting-edge technology and First Amendment issues.

During law school, Matthew was a member of the Fordham Law Review and won a national moot court competition in copyright and trademark law.

Admitted to practice in New York only. Supervised by a member of the Florida Bar.
