PROFILE

Sashi represents clients in high-stakes commercial disputes and professional malpractice matters, leveraging her deep understanding of her clients' legal and business issues to deliver successful outcomes in and out of court.

Sashi has experience in numerous areas, including professional malpractice, corporate governance, derivative shareholder actions, class actions, commercial real estate disputes, and fraud. She brings a unique perspective that comes from representing both plaintiffs and defendants through all stages of litigation, from pre-filing dispute resolution through appeal.

For over a decade, Sashi has defended one of the largest law firms in the world in its legal malpractice and legal ethics matters, obtaining case-ending summary judgment rulings in multiple cases.

Sashi is committed to pro bono work, having contributed to the decades-long case on behalf Florida's children on Medicaid, which "may have changed more lives than any U.S. litigation of the past decade" (Lawdragon, 2016) and resulted in improved access to medical and dental care for a class of 2 million Florida children.

Sashi is co-administrative partner for the firm's Fort Lauderdale office where she has worked for more than 20 years.

Prior to joining the firm, Sashi served as an Assistant County Attorney at the Miami-Dade County Attorney's Office, where she represented Miami-Dade County in civil litigation.
